

The background is a vibrant, abstract collage. It features thick, expressive brushstrokes in shades of purple, blue, pink, and orange. There are also black ink splatters and drips scattered throughout. In the bottom right corner, there is a small, rectangular inset photograph showing a group of people, possibly at a festival or event. The overall aesthetic is energetic and artistic.

EXCUSES AND FEARS OF SHARING YOUR FAITH

1. I don't have time to share my faith
2. I don't know how to start a spiritual conversation
3. I already know they'd say no
4. I'm waiting for the perfect time
5. I'm not a good speaker
6. I'm not an outgoing person

7. I want to speak with my life, not my words
8. I feel like a bad example to be sharing the Gospel
9. I have a boring testimony
10. It's my pastor's job to share the gospel, not mine
11. I don't know how to share my faith
12. I won't be able to answer their questions
13. I'm scared of getting rejected or looked down on

"But you will receive power
when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

QUESTIONS

1. What did you think of the testimony?
2. On the list of things that would describe you, where does “witness” stand?
3. When sharing your faith, which of the fears and excuses have you used the most in your life when sharing your faith? Share an example.
4. What is the worst-case scenario for sharing your faith? What might happen if it went really wrong?

5. What is the worst-case scenario for not sharing your faith?
6. Do you believe that God can use us to accomplish His mission of sharing the Gospel? Why or why not?
7. How brave do you have to be to share your faith?
8. Share an example of a time you shared your faith.
9. Does anyone else have something they want to say or share?
