

Nick Hall

Evangelist, Founder and President of Pulse Evangelism, Author

About Nick Hall

Nick Hall is a leading voice calling a generation back to Jesus. As Founder and President of Pulse Evangelism and author of Reset, he reaches millions by engaging Gen Z and young adults through bold, culturally relevant evangelism that bridges digital platforms and in-person proclamation, discipleship, and revival gatherings around the world.

In 2004, while a student at North Dakota State University, Nick wrote a paper in his college English class titled Pulse. In it, he articulated a vision to see Jesus at the pulse of his generation—a vision he would pursue through an organization focused on reaching the lost and equipping the evangelist. That idea sparked one of the largest student-led evangelistic efforts in American history and led to the launch of Pulse Evangelism in 2006.

Since its founding, Pulse has reached 989.9M+ people through in-person events, seen more than 2.1M Gospel responses, and trained 450+ young evangelists. In 2025 alone, Pulse reached 45K+ people through the Amplify Music Festival, with over 1.2K responding to the Gospel. Their Christmas broadcast that same year shared the Gospel digitally with 130M+ people across more than 15 countries.

In addition to his work with Pulse, Nick serves as President and CEO of The Table Coalition and sits on the Executive Committee of the National Association of Evangelicals. Through these roles, he helps unite the Church around the Gospel and mobilize believers to live out the call of the evangelist.

Over the past two decades, Nick has traveled extensively, speaking at events worldwide, building relationships, and sharing Jesus with people from all walks of life.

His work and voice have been featured by major media
outlets, including:

USA Today, The Washington Post, Fox News, Fox & Friends,
U.S. News & World Report, Christianity Today, CBN, The Huffington Post, Moody Radio, Trinity Broadcast Network, and The Christian Post.